

R.J. Dannemiller Sustainability Award

Self Nomination Form

The R.J. Dannemiller Sustainability Award was created in 2013 by former Granville, resident, R.J. Dannemiller. R.J. has a keen interest in the social and environmental aspects of sustainability and wants to recognize those each year by awarding a graduating senior, whose curricular and co-curricular work at Denison has embodied sustainability at its core.

Selection Criteria:

1. Graduating senior (required)
2. 3.5 GPA (required)
3. Significant contribution to campus, local or global sustainability (required)
4. First generation college graduate (preferred)
5. Sociology or Environmental Studies Major (preferred)
6. Aspiring eco entrepreneur (preferred)

Your Full Name:

Major & Minor:

Faculty/Staff Reference:

Department/Office:

Phone:

E-mail:

Please have your faculty/ staff reference submit a letter of recommendation by March 31, 2014.*

Student Accomplishments

Please include general and specific information regarding your accomplishments, as they relate to sustainability.

Please type your comments here and/or attach documentation.

Return to: Jeremy King, Campus Sustainability Coordinator,
Denison University
kingje@denison.edu

DEADLINE: MARCH 31